COMPETITION

FOR years, the railroads have fought for freedom to compete with other forms of transportation. For years, government and legislators have promised to give the railroads a square deal. Here is the situation today:

THE RAILROADS—They operate on their own roadways, upon which they pay 3¼ cents of every dollar collected for taxes, interest and maintenance. They are compelled by law to take any shipment offering profitable or unprofitable, at published tariffs. Their rates are fixed and controlled by government. They cannot discontinue unprofitable lines nor build additional lines without government permission. Their wages and hours of service are subject to review by government boards. Their equipment is maintained at rigid government standards. They provide every safeguard for public and employee.

THE HIGHWAY CARRIERS—They operate on publicly built and maintained roadways, and pay less than two cents out of every dollar for the privilege. They choose the cream of the traffic, the traffic that carries the highest rates. They make whatever charges they please. They stop or extend operations when and where they desire. They pay such wages and observe such hours as they choose. They are granted huge government subsidies of millions of dollars annually out of the public treasury. (And that means your treasury and your business treasury.)

This unjust, subsidized, destructive competition has resulted in steady decreases in railway income, employment and purchases, abandonment of trackage and loss of railway taxes. The railroads are not asking for favors. They are demanding only—fair treatment and competitive equality.

Legislation that will give the railroads a square deal depends on the action of Congress. Congress is made up of your representatives. That puts the issue squarely up to you. Demand that your representatives in Congress actively urge and vote for legislation to equalize competition between all forms of transportation—or be prepared to sacrifice your one indispensable transportation agency—your largest employer of labor—your largest taxpayer—your best customer—and your best friend, the privately owned and operated railroads of the nation.

The confidence thousands of parents have in good, old reliable, powdered Thedford's Black-Draught has prompted them to get the new Syrup of Black-Draught for their children. The grown folks stick to the powdered Black-Draught; the youngsters probably will prefer it when they outgrow their childish love of sweets. Mrs. O. W. Adams, of Murray, Ky., writes: "I have used Thedford's Black-Draught about three years, taking it for biliousness. Black-Draught acts well and I am always pleased with the results. I wanted a good, reliable laxative for my children. I have found Syrup of Black-Draught to be just that."

PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Frances Burnett has returned home in Roanoke after visiting Mr. and Mrs J. R. Burnett here.

Mrs. Evelyn Wildmon and Mrs. Virgie Angles, of Washington D. C. and Miss Montague, of Lynchburg had week ends visits at the home of Misses Nina and Jones.

Mrs. Fredrickburg, July 3.—A historic grass and plate once the property of George washington have returned to Fredericksburg to take up their permanent resting place among the relics at Kenmore, the restored home of Betty, slate ofGeorge Washington, it was announced here today by Mrs. H. H. Smith, secretary of the Kenmore association. The relics were given to Kenmore by Mrs. William A. W. Stewart of New york,, who obtained them from the late Mrs. Ann Gray of Boston, who received them as gift from the Curtis family morethan sixty years ago.

The dishes will take their place with a notable collection which the Kenmore association has been building up over a period of years. Among the pieces now on display are sets of Lafayette, and bits of china owned by Fielding Lewis, gun maker of the Revolutionand husband of Betty, George Washington's sister. Many other interesting have been placed in Kenmore, in its restoration, which includes not only the house and the refurnishing of the ancient mansion but also the restoration of its grand..., which was the work of the garden club of Virginia. Planter in Kenmore is said to be the finest hand work to be found anywhere.

The most recent gifts to Kenmore are the results of the decision of Mrs. Stewart to close two of her

Byrd Tells Tax Stand

Senator Harry Flood Byrd this week issued the following statement in regard to tax exempt bonds:

"The amount exempt bonds has now reached the great total of $90,000,000,000. This provides a refuge for those who invest in such bonds and thus escape the payment of taxes, which must be paid those engaged in productive business enterprises.

"The total is being constantly increased by new issues of federal, state, county and municipal bonds. The Federal Government alone is now borrowing $13,000 every minute of the twenty four hours of each day including Sundays. $7,000 each minute is being added to the Federal public debt by the insurance of Federal tax exempt bonds.

"I have always believed in an equalization of the tax burden by taxing all classes of property on a fair basis.

"I have introduced legislation to make possible the taxation of all future issues of federal, state county and municipal bonds, and providing also that the state can tax federal bonds.

"Any reform of our taxation system on a basis of ability to pay must provide for the taxation of the bonds which are not exempt.

"Very frankly, one of my objectives in this legislation is to discourage the future issuance of federal, state and local bonds. I still believe in the way as you go plan. I do not favor giving a refuge to the rich of the country to avoid taxation by the issuance of tax exempt securities imposing a great burden on the people in the way of interest and refunding charges."

CHANGES URGED IN BANKING BILL

Business Men and Bankers Agree in Objecting to Political Control Over Banks.

AMENDMENTS ARE SUGGESTED

Political Domination of Federal Reserve Board Declared to Be Undesirable for Depositors as Well as Their Banks.

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Business men and bankers alike who have appeared before committees of Congress to present views regarding the Banking Act of 1935 have found one main cause for criticism in those provisions which they agree would create the means for undesirable political control over the Federal Reserve System and thereby over individual banks throughout the United States. They have made the point that this undesirable condition would affect depositors as banks even more than the banks themselves.

This view has been stressed in criticisms by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, and the question of partisan control over banking was the central theme of a statement presented by R. S. Hecht, President of the American Bankers Association, who appeared before the Senate Sub-Committee on Banking and Currency hearings here. Mr. Hecht declared that his organization is actuated by a desire to be helpful to Congress "in enacting effective and workable banking legislation in the interests of all our people." He said in part:

"If it is finally decided that it is necessary to carry this legislation through at this session, we are strongly of the opinion that special care should be taken to keep our credit control and banking mechanism free from any sort of political considerations.

Quiet Fourth Of July Here

Two Baseball Games Are On Bill Here For Fourth of July Attractions

Appomattox settled down to a quiet observance of the Fourth of July today.

Both banks and the post office were closed for the day and a number of business places.

Baseball games were scheduled at the new diamond opposite Burge's filling station number 2, one for this morning and one this afternoon. The local team will oppose the Fairview Christian team, of Lynchburg.

A new grandstand has been built to make the game more enjoyable for spectators.

Large crowds are expected to go to Konawanda and Dillwyn Lakes.

SOCIAL

Mrs David Caldwell and Mrs. R. W. Stanley were joint hostess at five tables of bridge Tuesday afternoon at their home on Main Street. About 50 attended. Dinner was served on the lawn in picnic style which was enjoyed by all. All said the day would not soon be forgotten.

Motor Vehicle Tax Receipts Up In Va.

Virginia had the largest motor vehicle tax revenue in history for the fiscal year ending June 30, John Q. Rhodes, Jr. director of the state Devision of motor vehicles has predicted.

Mr. Rhodes estimated the total income for the year, on the basis of gasoline tax income for 10 months and license sales for 11 months, at $18,493,452; which is $1,383 more than the peak reached in 1931-32.

If his estimate is fotfilled, the division's revenue will run approximately $1,000,000 over last year's receipts.

In other words, we will have $2,000,000 more revenue for highways than Mr. Shirley figured on making up his budget, Mr. Rhodes said.

The Highway Department budget, however was made up with an expectation of a $2,000,000 drop. Economies during the year, plus the $2,000,000 additional revenue will about cancel out this deficit, it is expected at present.

However the State Highway Department will have put up $2,000,000 extra in the fiscal year begining on July 1 to match a Federal aid appropriations, and to this extent will be "in the red" again.

Sheppards

Sheppards, July 3— Some women were picking dewberries on the plantation of Mrs. M. J. Cox near Shepards and caused a slight flurry of excitement when they reported that a fox was lying in a clump of bushes in the berry field. Two young sportsmen responded to the telephone call, and one of them fired on and killed what was supposed to be the "fox" but proved to be a German police dog. It did not wear a collar and evidently it was the "wild dog" which has been seen in the neighborhood, and which is supposed to be responsible for to disappearance of a number of chickens and much depredatin and noise at night about the homes of people in the nighborhood.
